

The Jesus Way Part 3

Phil Wickham

*If you curse me, then I will bless you
If you hurt me, I will forgive
And if you hate me, then I will love you
I choose the Jesus way*

*If you're helpless, I will defend you
And if you're burdened, I'll share the weight
And if you're hopeless, then let me show you
There's hope in the Jesus way*

*If you strike me, I will embrace you
And if you chain me, I'll sing His praise*

And if you kill me, my home is heaven

(Romans 8:38–39) For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, {39} neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(John 14:2–3) In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. {3} And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.

(Revelation 12:10–11) Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. {11} They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

For I choose the Jesus way

I follow Jesus

(John 10:27) My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me.

(1 Peter 2:21) To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps.

(Matthew 16:24) Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.

(1 Corinthians 11:1) Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

He wore my sin, I'll gladly wear His name

(2 Corinthians 5:21) God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

(1 Peter 2:24) He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.

He is the treasure

(Colossians 2:2–3) My purpose is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, {3} in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

(2 Corinthians 4:5–7) For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake. {6} For God, who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. {7} But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us.

He is the answer

(John 14:6) Jesus answered, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Oh, I choose the Jesus way

(John 1:12) Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God—

(Colossians 2:6–7) So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, {7} rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness.
